Telephone:

(Area Code and Phone Number)

Pursuant to section 238(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act) as amended, 8 U.S.C. 1228(b), the Department of Homeland Security (Department) has determined that you are amenable to administrative removal proceedings. The determination is based on the following allegations:

1. You are not a citizen or national of the United States.
2. You are a native of MEXICO and a citizen of MEXICO
3. You entered the United States (at)(near) Callexico, California on or about April 2002
4. At that time you entered without inspection
5. You are not lawfully admitted for permanent residence.
6. You were, on _____, convicted in the SEE I-831 Court _____ for the offense of _____ in violation of _____
for which the term of imprisonment imposed was _____.

Charge:

You are deportable under section 237(a)(2)(A)(iii) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1227(a)(2)(A)(iii), as amended, because you have been convicted of an aggravated felony as defined in section 101(a)(43)(F) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(43)(F).

Based upon section 238(b) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1228(b), the Department is serving upon you this NOTICE OF INTENT TO ISSUE A FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE REMOVAL ORDER ("Notice of Intent") without a hearing before an Immigration Judge.

Your Rights and Responsibilities:

You may be represented (at no expense to the United States government) by counsel, authorized to practice in this proceeding. If you wish legal advice and cannot afford it, you may contact legal counsel from the list of available free legal services provided to you.

You must respond to the above charges in writing to the Department address provided on the other side of this form within 10 calendar days of service of this notice (or 13 calendar days if service is by mail). The Department must RECEIVE your response within that time period.

In your response you may: request, for good cause, an extension of time; rebut the charges stated above (with supporting evidence); request an opportunity to review the government's evidence; admit deportability; designate the country to which you choose to be removed in the event that a final order of removal is issued (which designation the Department will honor only to the extent permitted under section 241 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1231); and/or, if you fear persecution in any specific country or countries on account of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or political opinion or, if you fear torture in any specific country or countries, you may request withholding of removal under section 241(b)(3) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1231(b)(3), or withholding/deferral of removal under the Convention Against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman, or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (Convention Against Torture). A grant of withholding or deferral of removal would prohibit your return to a country or countries where you would be persecuted or tortured, but would not prevent your removal to a safe third country.

You have the right to remain in the United States for 14 calendar days so that you may file a petition for review of this order to the appropriate U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals as provided for in section 242 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1252. You may waive your right to remain in the United States for this 14-day period. If you do not file a petition for review within this 14-day period, you will still be allowed to file a petition from outside of the United States so long as that petition is filed with the appropriate U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals within 30 calendar days of the date of your final order of removal.

Honorable Beth Labson Freeman

20 I, Victor Ramirez-Gonzalez, hereby declare as follows:

- 21 1. I am the defendant in the above-captioned matter. As of November, 2008, I had lived in 22 the United States for eight years, since April 2000. My attorney has shown me an 23 immigration document, Exhibit E, which states that I told an immigration officer I entered 24 in 2002, but I believe that is a mistake.
- 25 2. At this time, I do not remember being interviewed by an immigration officer in February 26 2008.

- 1 3. In November 2008, I was taken to an immigration office in San Jose, California. I was 2 called in to an office and an immigration officer had me sit in a chair. He was writing
3 notes. He asked me if I spoke English and I told him in Spanish that I do not speak
4 English.
- 5 4. The immigration officer who spoke to me was not fluent in Spanish. I did not understand
6 everything he said. I can understand a little bit of English, but if something is 7 complicated it has to be explained to me in Spanish. I do not speak English and cannot 8 read English. He spoke a few words of Spanish, and he spoke to me in some English and 9 Spanish.
- 10 5. The immigration officer had a number of documents. He did not give me a copy of these 11 documents or translate them for me. He said something to me in Spanish about seeing an 12 immigration judge, but he did not speak Spanish very well. He used some Spanish words
13 mixed with English when he asked me if I wanted to see a judge, that's when he threw in 14 words in Spanish. He said to me "Juez Mas tiempo carcel." I understood this to mean:
15 Judge, more time, jail. He said if I wanted to see a judge, then I would be transported to 16 Arizona and it would be, "mas carcel." He used a mix of English and Spanish, and I
17 understood that he said, if you want to go "casa Mexico," sign today. I understood from 18 what he said that if I want to see the judge, I will stay longer in jail, and they were going 19 to take me to Arizona. He did not say how long.
- 20 6. The officer did not tell me that the judge could tell me about avoiding deportation. I
21 understood that if I signed the paper, I would leave voluntarily. No one explained to me
22 that there was a difference between leaving voluntarily and voluntary departure. He did
23 not explain anything to me about voluntary departure. If they had explained it to me, I
24 would have requested it, because I had the means to go to Mexico on my own. None of 25 the officers told me I was eligible for any form of voluntary departure or any other relief
26 from deportation. If I had known that I could pay my own way to return to Mexico and it

1 would not count as a "deportation," I would have requested that option. The immigration
2 officer that I saw in San Jose in 2008 did not tell me about that possibility. I would not
3 have signed the documents in 2008 if I had known about that possibility, and I would 4 instead have requested voluntary departure. If I had known it would be better to see the 5 judge and that the judge could give me voluntary departure, I would have waited to see
6 the judge. I thought things would be worse for me if I saw the judge, so I did not request 7 that.

8 7. My attorney has shown me Exhibit H, which I see is titled, "Notice of Intent to Issue A 9 Final Administrative Removal Order." I now see that it is a three-page document. In 10 2008, I was only shown the second page of this document, and the immigration officer
11 showed me where to sign it. My attorney has had an interpreter translate all three pages
12 for me in Spanish, and this is the first time this document has been translated or explained
13 to me. In 2008, the immigration officer did not review it with me in Spanish. This form
14 was not translated nor was it explained to me in 2008. He did not review anything with 15 me. He said to sign here. I am certain that form was not explained to me.

16 8. He did not explain to me I had a right to a lawyer. I was not provided with a list of free
17 legal services. I was not told I could contest these charges. I did not know I could do that 18 until my lawyer explained this to me in preparing this declaration. No one explained to 19 me that I could hire an immigration lawyer to challenge whether I had an aggravated
20 felony. If I had known, I would have taken steps to hire an immigration lawyer because I
21 had the means to hire one. He did not explain I could make a phone call. He did not 22 explain I had a right to appeal.

23 9. I did not understand that Exhibit H listed allegations against me. He just did not explain
24 anything to me. I asked him, what is that I am signing. And he said, "Mexico Casa 25 Today," before I signed the form. I did not know I was agreeing not to contest the 26 charges by signing the form, such as the charge that I had a prior conviction which the

1 immigration service said was an aggravated felony. If I had understood that by agreeing
2 to go to Arizona to see the immigration judge, I could have requested relief from removal,
3 I would never have signed that form.

4 10. After I signed the form, the officer gave me a piece of paper and pointed to the bottom,
5 and said, "no cinco anos, five years." I went back to where everyone else was being kept
6 and I asked another person in custody, does it say here that I cannot come back in five
7 years; and the person said no it does not say that. I could not read the form because it was 8 in English.

9 11. I was not aware, and no one explained to me, that there was any basis for me to challenge
10 my removal. I did not know, and no one explained to me, that I could argue that I did not 11 have an aggravated felony conviction.

12 12. In 2008, I had two children who were United States citizens. One was eight years old and 13 the other one was a baby. They were being raised by their mothers. I did not live with 14 them, but I regularly provided financial support for them.

15 13. Before I went into custody in 2008, I was self-employed and working in construction. I
16 estimate that I had $15,000 that I had available to purchase construction supplies for my 17 jobs. I could have used that money to pay my travel expenses and to hire a lawyer.

18 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct and of my personal 19 knowledge.

20 Executed this 3 day of May, 2016, in the Northern District of California, San Jose,
21 California.

ORDER

Based upon the allegations set forth in the Notice of Intent to Issue a Final Administrative Removal Order and evidence contained in the administrative record, I, the undersigned Deciding Officer of the Department of Homeland Security, make the following findings of fact and conclusions of law. I find that you are not a citizen or national of the United States and that you are not lawfully admitted for permanent residence. I further find that you have a final conviction for an aggravated felony as defined in section 101(a)(43)(F) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act) as amended, 8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(43)(F), and are ineligible for any relief from removal that the Secretary of Homeland Security, may grant in an exercise of discretion. I further find that the administrative record established by clear, convincing, and unequivocal evidence that you are deportable as an alien convicted of an aggravated felony pursuant to section 237(a)(2)(A)(iii) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1227(a)(2)(A)(iii). COMMENTARY

Although Penal Code section 244 is titled “assault with caustic chemicals,” this statute does not truly define an assault crime since actual contact with the other person is required.
